

STOP!

The logo for Tayside Environmental Network features a stylized green outline of a computer monitor or tablet. The text "Tayside Environmental Network" is written in a green, sans-serif font, with "Tayside" on the top line, "Environmental" on the second line, and "Network" on the third line, all contained within the outline of the device.

Tayside
Environmental Network

10 ways TEN can help your business get ahead!

1. Saves you time, money and hassle by linking you directly to NETREGS the first UK web site designed to help small businesses navigate through the maze of environmental legislation
2. Helps you to achieve economic and environmental benefits from improved environmental awareness
3. Has an online Environmental Business Support Database and a Resource Recovery Directory providing details of what support is available to assist your business in achieving both financial and environmental benefits
4. Understands 'the environment' is an increasing cost for you through water and waste charges, landfill tax and the climate change levy on energy bills
5. Can help you identify and tackle such costs - it is possible to reduce your operational costs
6. Holds FREE events that tackle issues that you have identified as a barrier to your business' development
7. Provides a proactive approach dealing with environmental issues that effect your business
8. Offers practical advice and support to make your business more competitive
9. Provides access to key experts in environmental management through a partnership of private and public organisations including Scottish Environment Protection Agency, Angus, Dundee City and Perth and Kinross Council, Dundee and Tayside Chamber of Commerce, Perthshire Chamber of Commerce, Scottish Enterprise Tayside, University of Abertay Dundee and National Health Trust Tayside
10. Online help available at www.tayside-environmental-network.org.uk